

I feel that if California can have stricter anti pollution laws then we in indiana can have stricter no-call laws. Plus the people that have joined the no-call list are just going to say no when telemarketers call so we are saving them time to begin with and just saying no before they call. please don't allow this sincerely yours loyd b grady jr